

Arizona Miner.

PRESCOTT, SEPT. 7, 1867.

FALSE REPORT.—The report in circulation in town today, that the Miner has been sold to the Democratic party, or to any other party or individual, is untrue. Negotiations for a sale have been had, but no conclusion reached.

CHAPMAN BLAKE, having reported at Camp McDowell, has returned here, on leave of absence. He will, we hear, preach at the Legislative hall, Montezuma street, to-morrow at 11 o'clock.

JAMES P. BULL, county clerk of Mohave county, arrived here a few days since from California via Mohave, and returned yesterday, accompanied by Dr. Clutter.

RESCORT WANTED.—The mail carriers from Pima Villages to Prescott, having announced that the risk was too great for them to carry the mail longer without an escort, the citizens of Wickenburg have petitioned Gen. Grant to furnish the same. We understand the General will do so from Wickenburg here, provided the carrier travels by Camp McDowell.

RICHARD GRAY, G. H. Vickroy and Mr. Harlan arrived here a few days since from California via Mohave, and returned yesterday, accompanied by Dr. Clutter.

MEANS.—Dickason, from Leonora Valley, has been in town this week, with some magnificent water and musk melons—the product of his ranch in that fertile locality.

THE EDITOR of the Arizona Miner published the last number of his paper here, on Saturday last—a very good looking sheet. His health was so poor that he left here on Monday evening for Wickenburg; and the further publication of the paper is suspended.

THE PARTIES who jumped a part of the Plaza some months since, began to build a house upon it a day or two since, but were promptly stopped in their work by an injunction, issued by Judge Turner, at the request of Hon. John A. Rusk, attorney for certain merchants, who, having paid high prices for lots facing the plaza, have no idea of letting any one occupy that public ground.

At a future time we shall speak to the citizens of Prescott more fully upon this subject.

POPULAR MEN OF PRESCOTT.—Those who have been inquired for their letters and papers at the Post office, the first hour after the arrival of the California mail.

THE PACIFIC ARMY AND NAVY CHRONICLE, for August, has a good article upon soldiers as politicians, and much information regarding military and naval affairs. F. O. Wakenam & Co. 606 Merchand street, San Francisco, publish the Chronicle at $2 per year. Capt. Joseph Tuttle, late chief quartermaster of Arizona, is now associated with them.

HOOVER & HINTON, of Fort Yuma, have lately purchased two claims on the Yulture lead, and are negotiating for another.

GOVERNMENT.—The Legislature is to be convened upon having secured competent clerks. Mr. George, the Secretary of the Council, held the one office in the first Legislature, and performed its duties with much ability. Mr. Christie, now recorder of this county, will give the House full attention as its chief clerk. W. H. Ford is the assistant in the Council, and Aug. Brien, in the Senate. Both know how to handle the pen.

THE GOVERNOR is to deliver his Message to the Legislature on Monday next, at 11 o'clock, A. M. at the hall of the House of Representatives.

A COVILLO PARTY will come off at the Meadows on Tuesday Evening next. Tickets $5 in advance—to be had at Cooper's Gun Shop.

COL. CARTER, Col. Bigelow, Hon. J. B. Allen and Lieut. Foster, arrived from the lower country last evening. Lieut. F. brought the military prisoners from Camp McDowell, the escort that went from here with Paymaster Dana and was put under arrest at that place.

THE LEGISLATORS seem well pleased with the bill provided for them in the Senate building.

ABOUT 20 cavalry recruits arrived here a few days since, for the companies at Whipple. Capt. Burton and Lieut. McDougall are the officers in command.

PARTIES just from the Yulture Mill speak of seeing a bar of gold there, weighing over fourteen pounds.

THE ARIZONA APACHE tribe of Indians have come into Camp Grant on the San Pedro. It numbers some two hundred red legs, who wish to make peace—or say so.

BROKEN SLATES.—It is surprising to see the number of broken slates lying about town since the organization of the Legislature.

The best laid schemes of mice and men, &c.

CAMPBELL has moved in his new Store, and a welcome it is.

THE DAILY MINER.

Following the custom begun at the session of the Third Legislature of the Territory, (1866,) we propose to publish a daily paper during the session of the present Legislature. Besides giving the official proceedings of both houses, we shall refer to the bills introduced, to the votes of the members, and to all incidents of interest in connection with the movements of our Legislators. The Daily Miner will also give the local and general news of the day, and will be alive to the interests of the Territory. It will be furnished to the public at $2 for the session, or 10 cents per copy, in currency, and delivered, each morning, by or before 10 o'clock. To those who favor us with advertising patronage to the extent of $10 or upwards, it will be sent free of charge. The terms for advertising will be liberal and may be learned on application at our office.

W. H. FORD, Publisher.

When a Spaniard eats a peach or a pear with his foot, and covers the seed. Consequently, all over Spain, by the roadside, wherever fruit in great abundance tempts the taste, and is ever free. Let this practice be initiated in the United States, and the wanderer will be blessed, and bless the land that ministered to his comfort and

GEN. GRANT AND THE PRESIDENCY.

WHY A GEORGIA PAPER SUPPORTS HIM.

General Grant is a national man. He has all his life been removed from and occupied a position above the influence of political strife, and is, therefore, free from the prejudices and animosities consequent upon them. Unlike any old politician who may be elevated to the Presidency, he has "no friends to reward, no enemies to punish." His services for the Union, and his national reputation, are sufficient to carry him unanimously into the Presidential office, unnumbered by pledges to any; his past record being the only pledge the people will require.

Elected and supported by the people, independently of the usual intrigues of interested politicians, and responsible directly to the people, General Grant would be free to select the soundest statesmen and truest patriots for his constitutional advisers, without regard to the section whence they came, or past political associations. Comprising in the comprehensive sweep of his policy the entire country from the St. Lawrence and the Lakes to the Gulf and the Rio Grande, and from the Atlantic to the Pacific, the good of the whole will be his object, and it may reasonably be anticipated that all its members will be harmoniously reunited on his accession to power. Then the country, emerging from its present gloom and despondency, with augmented strength and confidence derived from a firmly cemented Union, will move irresistibly forward on its mission of good to the nations, and its position as the first Power in the world.

Martially educated by the Union, he is emphatically the child of the Union, and loves it with all the ardor of a grateful son. Having given his services to it, and risked his life to defend and preserve it, he will not long tolerate the present practical disunion. Disunionists, whether in the South or North, would soon hide their diminished heads, and disunion sentiments would be forever banished. Copperheads and Radicals in the North, and those who, in the South, covertly favor disunion by opposing the proffered plan for reconstruction, will each and all receive their death warrant, and be buried in the same grave, never to be resurrected. But while withering vengeance would thus be visited upon the enemies of the Union, the magnanimity of the true soldier and successful captain would be extended cheerfully to all who should ground arms and return to their fidelity. Men who have received a military education are proverbial, as a class, for high-souled honor and magnanimous dispositions, and may be implicitly relied on in all the relations of life. That General Grant is a representative man of his profession is known to all with whom he ever came in contact, and especially to those whom the fortunes of war placed in his power.

We are aware that owing to the injudicious opposition of the majority of the Press and a few prominent citizens of Georgia, we may not, as we otherwise might have done, participate in the election; but we shall have to live under the Administration which shall succeed President Johnson's and are interested in its being broadly national, and untainted with any of the bitter prejudices growing out of old party feeling.

General Grant almost surrounded the new excluded States, and by force of numbers compelled a surrender; now the people are gathering in their might, and soon he will be "compounded about" in such a way as to compel his surrender to their will. There is no escape from this result; and the 4th of March, 1869, will witness the inauguration of Ulysses S. Grant as President of the United States.

Let all, then, everywhere, who would place a gallant soldier, and a truly national man, prepared to do full justice to all the people of all sections of the Union, in the Presidential office, rally to the support of General Grant, the Nation's only hope in this dire extremity.—Atlantic News.

WISCONSIN affords the curious history that she was governed by the King of France 93 years; by the King of Great Britain 20 years; by the State of Virginia 1 year; by the Territory of Ohio 10 years; by Indian Territory 9 years, and by Michigan Territory 18 years. She continued a Territory of the United States nearly 12 years, when on the 13th of March, 1847, she became the 30th State of the Union.
